

SuperPro Challenge Round 1

Race format – 4x10 minute races

The return of the SuperPro Challenge saw 4 very competitive races where throughout the night drivers were battling it out for positions. Gareth Holland won two of the four races and Declan Miles also secured two wins in the lightweight class, both of them put up a fight making their way through the grid to secure the victories although it wasn't enough for Declan Miles who sits second in the championship four points from leader Gareth. In the heavy weight class Mitchell Holland is currently sitting at the top of the class although both Luke Skilton and Steve Best are two points behind the young Holland. Ross Hastings was the fastest man of the night setting a time of 59.374.
